

Support from parents is the most important factor for a child's educational success.

The school or childcare environment, educators, teachers and professionals also contribute to the development and fulfillment of your children.

But you are the most significant persons in your child's life, and that's why AQEPA Montreal Regional and AQEPA Provinciale are there to support and help you develop different teaching and support tools through various programs and resources.

...Enjoy it!

Read for fun

Stimulation through play

Homework Help

"Aqep'activities" *

Activities directory*

Back to school kit*...

*Available in French only

AQEPA
MONTREAL RÉGIONAL

Association du Québec
pour enfants
avec problèmes auditifs

In partnership with AQEPA Provinciale

AQEPA Montreal Regional

2033, Sherbrooke St East, Montreal (Quebec) H2K 1C1
Voice & TTY : 514-842-3926
info@aqepamtl.org

For more informations : www.aqepa.org

8 ways to contribute to Your child's educational success

PRIDE

I feel proud when my efforts are noticed, and I am congratulated; it is good for my self-esteem..

MY VICTORIES

My confidence increases when my parents highlight my progress and successes.

AUTONOMY

When I am involved in finding a solution, I feel important. It helps develop my independence.

MY ACHIEVEMENTS

I love when my parents are interested and participate in my activities. It gives importance to my achievements and strengthens our bonds.

GOALS

I need help setting goals and finding the means to achieve them. This way, my efforts will have meaning.

MY ENVIRONNEMENT

Positive exchanges related to my environment help develop a strong sense of belonging.

READING

The more I read, the more I increase a skill essential to my educational success.

MY MOTIVATION

My perseverance depends on your encouragement. Your support contributes to my motivation.

Encouraging a child can make all the difference!

